

The diagram consists of seven overlapping circles arranged in two rows. The top row has four circles: orange, light blue, light green, and dark green. The bottom row has three circles: dark green, purple, and orange. Each circle contains text. The circles overlap in a way that creates a central area where all seven circles meet, and several other areas where two or three circles overlap.

Identity and Self-Worth

Relevance
and future

Workplace Culture and Behaviour

Risk and Fear
Culture

Perceptions and Myths

Professional Structures and Power

Recognition and Opportunities

